*NOTE: The U.S. Department of Education does not recognize emancipation of Mississippi residents as valid consideration for independent student status because Mississippi's code § 93-19-1, sometimes referred to as the "Removal of Disability of Minority" may be granted to Mississippi residents under the age of majority (21) for purposes concerning real estate only (i.e., selling, leasing, entering into contractual agreements, etc.). The terms of Mississippi's code do not indicate the revocation of parental rights, or other circumstances for which the U.S. Department of Education would consider a student "independent" from their parents (i.e., a severed or broken relationship between minors and parents). Mississippi students under the age of 21, granted emancipation in Mississippi, are still required to include parent information on the FAFSA unless they would meet any of the other independent status criteria as indicated on the FAFSA.
